

TOBB
Economy and Technology University
International Relations Department

tepav | ipri

london information network on conflict and state-building

COMPETING ENERGY POLICIES OF MAJOR POWERS

WORLD ENERGY FUTURE

Round-table Meeting

TOBB - ETÜ (Economics and Technology University)

(Söğütözü Cad.No:43 Söğütözü-ANKARA)

4th Floor Senate Room

27 April 2007, Friday

14.00 - 18.00

Opening Remarks

Dennis SAMMUT, Executive Director

London Information Network on Conflict and State-Building (LINKS)

Moderator:

Mustafa AYDIN, TOBB-ETÜ, Head of International Relations Department

Director of International Policy Research Institute (TEPAV|IPRI)

Key-note Speakers:

Brenda Shaffer, Research Director Caspian Studies Project Harvard University

Necdet Pamir, General Coordinator, Center for Eurasian Strategic Studies (ASAM)

Dimitri Zykov, Counselor, Russian Embassy in Turkey*

Topics to be addressed:

- The Question of Russia as a Reliable Supplier
 - Does Russia use oil and gas as a weapon?
- Turkey's Role encompassed by Global Energy Strategies (U.S. & EU & Russia & China...etc)
- Russia's Energy Policies in the Black Sea and Caspian Region
- Future of World's Energy and Policies of Great Powers